BIPAC Action Fund Endorses Will Hurd for the U.S. House

Business-Industry Political Action Committee Supports Texas Pro-Jobs Candidate

WASHINGTON DC – BIPAC’s Action Fund endorses Will Hurd in Texas’ 23rd Congressional District. This endorsement means that a broad consensus amongst BIPAC members and Texas state and local employers were met that Hurd will be the strongest advocate for growing America’s economy.

“As a former small businessman himself, Will Hurd knows how government can help or hurt job creation. Time and again, he has proven to be a supporter of pro-jobs policy during his first term in office while his opponent in the General Election has clearly had a lackluster record on issues important to working families,” said Andrew Blascovich, director of political affairs at BIPAC.

Rep. Hurd currently serves on the U.S. House Committee on Homeland Security and as Chairman of the IT Subcommittee for Oversight and Government Reform.
